

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Conclusion

May God bless us and be with us.
Amen.

On your own at any time, on your own at the same time as others in your village, on the phone with a friend or with others in your household.

Wherever or However you use this we are together as members of Christian communities (Churches, Schools and Fresh Expressions) in the Launde Deanery - we pray together.

Prayer During the Day

Launde Deanery Churches, Schools and Fresh Expressions
Alone Together

My heart told me to come to you
so I am coming to ask for your help.

Psalm 27.8

God you are wise...

I belong to you.
I want to do what you want.

Wherever you put me,
In all I do even if it is hard;

When I have work
and when I do not;

When I am sad
and when I am happy.

I want to do what you want.

When people care
and when I am ignored.

I want to do what you want.

I promise this now on earth
Let it be made real in heaven.
Amen.

The Word of God: from Psalm 20

We will call out to God

We look to the hills;
May God protect you;

Some put their trust in strong people,
but we trust in God.

They fall down,
but we stand.

We will call out to God
God will care for us.

Short Reading 2 Corinthians 5.17-18a

When anyone is in Christ,
it is a whole new world.
The old things are gone;
suddenly, everything is new!

All this is from God.
Through Christ, God made peace between God and us.

John 6.51a

Jesus said, I am the living bread that came down from heaven.

Whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Prayers

For people who are alone
For people who are sick
For people who lead
For people who work in health care
For people who are frightened

For our churches
For the people we know
For your peace
and presence

we pray to God.
